Pearl Store — Refund Policy

Knowledge-base document for SupportPearlz

Refund request window

Customers may request a refund within 14 days of receiving their order.

Eligibility

Refunds are subject to the product meeting the applicable refund conditions. The supplied knowledge-base material does not list the detailed conditions or exceptions. The assistant must not invent or assume them.

Processing and escalation

The supplied material does not specify how long an approved refund takes to process or provide a dedicated escalation contact. Customers should contact the store's official support channel for case-specific guidance.

Documented knowledge gaps

A separate policy for damaged, defective, opened, or missing-item orders has not been supplied. Those cases require confirmation from a human support representative.
